

Laser treatment for glaucoma

Contributed by Administrator
Friday, 09 November 2007
Last Updated Friday, 09 November 2007

Laser treatment is performed to prevent angle closure (YAG iridotomy) or to lower eye pressure (eg selective laser trabeculoplasty - SLT). SLT is a promising new treatment used to lower IOP. It is potentially a repeatable procedure.